

Welcome to Lee Virtual School!

On behalf of our great team, thank you for choosing LVS.

On the evening of Wednesday, January 5, 2022, you and your student received email communication with instructions to access your LVS account login.

Then, on Thursday, January 6, 2022, you and your student received email communication providing details of the LVS Supply List and Chromebook/Elementary Workbook Packet distribution schedule.

Today's email is the most exciting! Student and Learning Guide success within LVS is more than accessing lessons and submitting assignments. This asynchronous learning model will challenge you, your student and learning guide to embrace independent learning and develop self-advocacy skills. Students can anticipate learning a new tech language, thinking critically, and... reading, reading, and more reading! Mark your calendar for the First Days of Semester Two LVS Symposium on January 12, 13, and 14th.
